

Getting Started

Find reliable information for school research projects with just one search. Use the tabs to find encyclopedia, newspaper, magazine and journal articles, primary source documents, videos, and eBooks at a variety of reading levels that support Ohio's New Learning Standards and rigorous academic research.

Use Isearch for:

- Starting all types of research for students in grades 4-12.
- Comparing the information from different types of sources.
- Finding articles from encyclopedias, magazines, scholarly journals, and newspapers at a variety of reading levels along with reports, primary sources, eBooks, and videos.
- Finding resources on any topic that have been reviewed for accuracy.
- Finding academic resources that are unavailable on the Internet.

To enter the resource, start from the INFOhio home page at <http://www.infohio.org>.

- Click the PreK-5, 6-8, 9-12, or All INFOhio Resources box.
- Enter a search term in the Isearch box.
- If prompted, enter your user name and password. If you do not know your username and password, talk to your school librarian, or click Get Password under the Student Quick Links at the bottom of the INFOhio home page.

The screenshot shows the INFOhio website interface. At the top left is the INFOhio logo with the tagline "OHIO'S PreK-12 DIGITAL LIBRARY". In the top right corner, it says "You are logged in as Site Manager" and "STUDENTS". Below the logo is a navigation bar with tabs for "Grades PreK-5", "Grades 6-8", "Grades 9-12", "Resources", "Parents", and "Login/out".

On the left side, there is a sidebar with "INFOhio Resources" including links for "Resources by Grade", "By Subject", "Additional Resources", "Summer Reading", "Getting Started", "Find Your Library Catalog", and "Find My Password". Below this are sections for "What is My Password?" with a "Get My Password" button, and "Search Your Library" with a description: "Visit your school library to search your school system's catalog and find additional material!".

The main content area features a "Resources by Subject (34)" section with a bar chart icon and a "Research Resources (22)" section with a box icon. A speech bubble points to a search box with the text: "Enter your search term here. You'll find this box on all the student resource pages." Below the search box is the "Isearch (INFOhio)" search bar with the placeholder text "What is your topic?" and a "Go" button. Below the search bar are three resource listings, each with an icon and a description:

- Ancestry Library Edition (ProQuest): Research your family history and find historical information using census data, government records, primary sources, images, and more. Access only available at school or at your local public library.
- Biography Reference Bank (EBSCO): Articles, most in full text, about more than a half-million people from around the world.
- BookFlix: Listen and read. Storybooks, e-books, videos, games, and more. PreK-3.
